The amount shown for this independent expenditure ($1,363.60) is one-fourth of the total amount paid by the California Taxpayer Protection Committee to JC-Evans, Inc. ($5,454.40) by means of a single check (#1268) for the production and mailing of a single campaign flyer that promoted four different candidates for Newport Beach City Council: Diane Dixon (District 1), Duffy Duffield (District 3), Kevin Muldoon (District 4), and Scott Peotter (District 6). The flyer also mentions Newport Beach Mayor Rush Hill, another candidate, in the context of criticizing the current Council members for the City's out-of-control spending. (Specifically, the flyer says, in relatively small print: 'The current crop of council members, including incumbent Mayor Rush Hill, have saddled city residents with enormous debt, skyrocketing pension liabilities, and out-of-control spending.') Mayor Hill was not the primary focus of this campaign literature.
